This instruction implements Air Force Policy Directive, 11-2, Aircraft Rules and Procedures. This instruction establishes policies and assigns responsibilities to provide for the conducting of contingency student flying periods on Saturdays, Sundays, or holidays in support of the mission of the 80th Flying Training Wing (80 FTW).

SUMMARY OF REVISIONS

Entire regulation was updated to reflect the name changes in the former Sheppard Training Center (STC) to the 82nd Training Wing (82 TRW).

1. Policy

1.1. Contingency student flying periods on Saturdays, Sundays, or holidays are conducted essential to the accomplishment of the mission of the 80 FTW.

1.2. Notification of the contingency student flying periods will be the earliest possible time, but no later than the end of the duty day two days prior to the start of the required flying periods.

2. Responsibilities

2.1. The commander 80 FTW will:

2.1.1. Notify 82 TRW Command Post and other affected organizations (Base Operations, Aircraft Maintenance Contract Manager, 82nd Support Group (82 SG), 82nd Medical Group (82 MDG), Fort Worth Center, and AAFES ("Speedbrake") manager) of scheduled contingency student flying periods.

2.1.2. Notify affected organizations of scheduled contingency flying periods are canceled.

2.2. The Commander 82 SG will:

2.2.1. Provide messing facilities in an appropriate dining hall during the scheduled contingency flying periods.

2.2.2. Ensure the Commander 82nd Civil Engineers Squadron (82 CE) provides fire fighting services at Sheppard AFB and the affected auxiliary field during contingency flying periods.

2.3. Contract Maintenance will provide transportation, supply and petroleum, oil, and lubrication (POL) support during scheduled contingency flying periods.

2.4. The Commander 82 MDG will provide ambulance and flight surgeon services during contingency student flying periods.
